

The Rustic Roost

The " Rustic Roost" has all the rustic charm you could want in an old -converted workshed. All building materials used were sourced from recycled demolition bungalows, repurposed antique furniture or old farm equipment. Luxury linen is supplied in the mezzanine bedroom and include towels, organic toiletries plus a heated towel rail and underfloor heating in the bathroom. Breakfasts in the "Rusty Roost " consist of cereal, fresh fruits and yoghurt, as well as juice, bagels, jam, butter, and tea/coffee .

Situated next to a working farm, "The Roost" is surrounded by the sights and sounds of everyday country life, where sheep and cattle pass by over the hills that echo to the melodious sounds of never-ending birdsong. Bring your mountain bikes or hire locally to enjoy off road trails around the picturesque village of Kinloch, just ten minutes away or ride to Craters of the Moon for local trails.
