Prodigal Daughter Gourmet Lodge

Prodigal Daughter Gourmet Lodge has three guest rooms, all with en-suites in the main house or choose one of our 2 self catering cottages set in our spacious gardens.

A Taste of France is in the main lodge with en-suite. It has a flat screen TV and tea making facilities as well as its own private outdoor terrace overlooking sweetness in spring and Christmas Lillies in summer.

The Morocco Room is a one-room suite n the main lodge with super-king-size bed which can also be split into king singles. Tastefully decorated with bits and pieces from Morocco.

The Little Italy Room is a one-room suite, also in the main lodge with king-size sleigh bed and gorgeous garden view.

The Garden Apartment is a self-contained apartment with private entrance, queen-size bed, bathroom, and galley kitchen.

Pinot Cottage is a newly refurbished self contained cottage in the garden of Prodigal Daughter Gourmet Lodge.

Also available by request, you can reserve the whole Lodge, or even the whole property. Ideal for special functions etc.

Prodigal Daughter Gourmet Lodge is run by Rachel Priestley, international chef. For something special ask about a four course table d'hote dinner in the fabulous dining room or book a hands-on cooking class
